

Attention Ivy Tech Faculty: Save the Dates!

We are excited to announce two upcoming webinars covering Recruiting, Retaining, and Advancing within STEM Fields for women. Each discussion will also include a period for questions and answers.

9:00-10:30 a.m.

August 28:

Recruiting Women into STEM: Proven Strategies

September 11:

Connect with Confidence: Retain & Advance
Women in the STEM Field

We are pleased to welcome Pam McGee to lead these webinars! Associate Professor McGee is the Chair of the Dept. of Technology at Minnesota State University, and has served as the Women in Technology Division President at ATMAE.

To reserve your space, please send a message to:

Lindsey Daugherty at ldaugherty22@ivytech.edu or 317-968-1534
She will send you instructions for logging on to the webinars.

This program is sponsored by the Ivy Tech Women in STEM grant funded through the National Science Foundation .
