

Practicing PEACE in the Wake of 9/11: A Vedantic Approach

Swami Sarvapriyananda

September 11, 2016 (Sunday)

Festival Concert Hall, NDSU

4:00 pm — 5.00 pm

This is a free event. All are welcome

Refreshments following the event

Vedanta is the philosophical foundation of Hinduism. Vedanta expresses sublime spirituality in the voice of strict rationality and teaches a way of life that is both highly idealistic and eminently practical. As the basis of religious harmony in India for thousands of years, this ancient wisdom tradition can give light and peace to our troubled 21st century world.

Organizers:

Center for Interfaith Projects

Concordia's Forum on Faith and Life

Indo-American Association of Great Plains

M-State Office of Diversity and Inclusion

MSUM

NDSU Office of Multicultural Programs

For more details contact:

Indranil Sengupta (Indra.sengupta@gmail.com), 701-231-9544

Abhijit Ghosh (gosh.abhi@gmail.com), 218-299-4826

Pratap Kotala (pkotala@gmail.com), 701-541-9869