

No Dapl Week

October 10-14th

Join American Indian Student Association, Sustainable Student Association, and Dragons Society of Social Work in gathering donations for the Standing Rock Spirit Camps. Preferred donations that they are looking for include: winter coats/jackets, winterized camping materials, boots, hats, gloves, visa gift cards, and much more. For a more detailed list please go to: www.sacredstonecamp.org/supply-list/

Wednesday October 12th

Open Discussion: Dakota Access Pipeline

CMU Sun Garden Lounge 5pm to 7pm

Please join us in having an open discussion about the Dakota Access Pipeline which will be moderated by Professor Karen Branden.

Thursday October 13th

Letter Writing Party

Intercultural Center (CMU 121) 8am to 7pm

Write letters to people, companies, and organizations who support the pipeline. Writing materials, letter examples, fact sheets, contact info, and written guidelines will be provided.

Friday October 14th

Diversity Dialogue: Pipelines

Intercultural Center (CMU 121) 1pm

This will be a panel discussion consisting of students from various backgrounds and studies. Moderated by Donna Brown, Chief Diversity Officer.

MM WCOM

